January 26, 2010

Dear Tax Representative and Government Officials,

Please be advised of schedule change. The Power Industry Day meeting has been changed to Monday, February 22 from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m

The Property Tax Division will be holding its annual Industry Day Meetings for the 2010 assessment during the week of February 22, 2010. We will be implementing a similar format as last year. Instead of one large, open meeting, we will be hosting industry-specific "round-table" discussions throughout the week. Please see industry dates and times below.

The primary purpose of the meetings is to give industry and government an opportunity to present information to the Division for consideration in the valuation of centrally assessed properties for the 2010 Assessment. This may include but not limited to: methods used, laws and law changes, bond rates, industry-specific macro or micro economic conditions, and technology trends.

All meetings will be held at:

The Utah State Tax Commission
210 North 1950 West
Salt lake City, Utah 84134
